

Allen Mom

Mr. Mom is entering his third year practicing school psychology and has been at Toledo Elementary since 2016. Mr. Mom received a Bachelor of Arts in psychology and an Education Specialist degree in school psychology from Baylor University in Waco, Texas. He strives to provide evidence-based psychological services to students to aid their growth academically, behaviorally, emotionally, and socially. Mr. Mom also serves Toledo Jr/Sr High and conducts evaluations for various school districts in the Willamette Valley.

He is a native Texan and has resided in Oregon since 2015. In his free time, he enjoys game nights with friends, dog sitting, and mentoring middle and high school students.

Favorite Things

- Family
- Coffee
- Texas
- Sports (especially soccer)
- Traveling and the outdoors
- Baylor Bears and all Dallas, TX professional sports teams
- The Hobbit, LOTR, and Star Wars
- Reading
- Cooking and trying new foods
- All things psychology

Favorite Quote

“The task of the modern educator is not to cut down jungles but to irrigate deserts.” –C.S. Lewis, The Abolition of Man

